Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

Major Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, and Mrs. Scott have gone to West Point to take part in the festivities attendant upon the commencement exercises at the Military Academy, which make this the gala week of the year. Other interesting people who will attend the graduation ceremonies are Brig. Gen. Horatio G. Gibson, of the class of '47, the oldest living graduate of the Academy; Brig. Gen. John M. Wilson, retired; Brig. Gen. Erasmus Weaver, Brig. Gen. Tucker H. Bliss, and Brig. Gen. George W. Goethals.

A feature of the week will be the reunion of the class of '85, many members of which foregathered in New York yesterday, and went up to West Point via the Hudson river today. Last night the members of the class, with a number of ladies, were entertained at dinner by William C. Munchingheim, proprietor of the Astor Hotel. Among the guests were Brig. Gen. Henry P. McCain, Col. John D. Barrette, Col. John M. Carson, Jr., Lieut. Col. William E. Craighill, Lieut. Col. William A. Holbrook, Lieut. Col. William F. Martin, Lieut. Col. Almon L. Farmer, Lieut. Col. Beaumont B. Buck, Major John K. Case, U. S. A., retired; Capt. Herbert S. Whipple, U. S. A., retired; Lieut. Haydn S. Cole, U. S. A., retired; Martin Beasley, J. H. Belden, W. F. Lewis, F. M. Peterson, G. I. Putnam, Dr. U. S. Ward and others. The big graduation ball to be held Friday evening in Cullum Hall will bring to a close a round of functions, including a lawn fete given the Superintendent of the Academy, Col. Clarence P. Townsley, and Mrs. Townsley on Monday afternoon, in compliment to the graduating class; a performance of "She Stoops to Conquer," by the Ben Greet Players on the slopes of the battle monument at Trophy Point, drills, dances, and informal entertainments galore.

Commander and Mrs. George R. Marvell have arranged a dutch treat dinner of twenty covers for tonight at the Army and Navy Club, preceding the weekly dance, the last of the season. Others who will entertain at dinner at the club this evening are Lieut. and Mrs. J. B. Rhodes, Col. and Mrs. A. C. Macomb, Gen. Harry R. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Wells, Commander T. T. Craven, Commander Ralph Earle, Prof. and Mrs. Stanton Brown, Lieut. and Mrs. W. F. Bevan, Capt. and Mrs. Davis B. Willis, Major and Mrs. James Canby, Major and Mrs. H. H. Jones, Col. T. Cruse and Mrs. Magruder.

Harold Brown, of this city, was among the hosts at dinner last night in the palm room of the Martinique, in New York city.

Miss Isabelle May was among those who motored from the Hot Springs to Boone Cabin yesterday for tea.

Mrs. Ricardo C. Aldao, whose husband was the Argentine delegate to the Pan-American financial congress, entertained a party at luncheon yesterday at the summer garden at the Plaza, in New York.

The Counselor of the British Embassy and Mrs. Colville Barclay have taken possession of the cottage at the North Shore, which they have leased for the summer. Mr. Barclay will return to Washington next week.

The Military Attache of the Embassy and the Hon. Mrs. Murrough O'Brien, with their children, have also gone to the North Shore. Colonel O'Brien will come back shortly after establishing his family in their attractive summer quarters.

Mrs. Lanier Park McLachlen is entertaining at bridge this afternoon in honor of her house guest, Miss Rosa K. Gahn, of New Orleans, La.

Stephen B. Elkins, who is making a stay in New York, entertained at dinner last night in the Armonville restaurant of the Knickerbocker Hotel, New York.

Mrs. Sigerfoos, wife of Major Edward Sigerfoos, will entertain at bridge on the afternoon of June 16.

Weddings-Engagements

St. Paul's Methodist Church, South, was the scene of a charming wedding last evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Lillie May De Vaughn, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Bernhardt, became the bride of Herman English. The Rev. Dr. Smith, of Whitney Avenue Church, performed the ceremony, which was attended by some 200 guests.

The maid of honor was Miss Clara E. Warneson, and the bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Vernon, Eleanor M. Warneson, Margaret Vernon and Lenora Kremkau. Alonso S. Eaton was best man.

The decorations of ferns, palms and wild flowers, made the church unusually pretty. The song "Beneath Love's Window" was sung before the ceremony, and Mrs. Israel played the wedding march. The bride, who was led to the altar by her uncle, Mr. Bernhardt, was dressed in a beautiful white satin gown trimmed with Irish point lace. Her long train was fastened at the shoulders with a pin of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and her veil was fastened with a band of pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride roses.

The maid of honor wore a gown of soft pink silk with a lace bolero trimmed with roses. She carried a bouquet of La France roses. The bridesmaids wore gowns of soft blue silk and lace boleros and carried bouquets of pink roses. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom, in company with the maid of honor and the best man, went to their future home, 137 V street northwest, where a reception followed. The bride and bridegroom, standing beneath a large white bell, received the congratulations of the many guests.

At 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. English departed to take a train for Baltimore, whence they will continue to Waynesboro, Pa., where they are to spend a few weeks. Miss Elizabeth Hewlett Scudder, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Townsend Scudder, and Lieut. Wadsworth Capehart, U. S. N., son of Capt. and Mrs. Edward E. Capehart, will be married this afternoon at the home of the bride, 112 Willow street, Brooklyn. As the family is in mourning the guests will be limited to the two families and the intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. Miss Scudder will have as maid of honor her sister, Miss Anna Thayer Scudder. The bridesmaids will be Misses Anna Knauth, Miss Isie Knauth, of New York city; Miss Hazel Scudder, of Glen Cove, L. I.; and Miss Lucy Howard of this city.

Lieut. J. Ogden Hoffman is to be best man and the ushers will be Lieut. Francis John Comerford, Lieut. Augustine Gray, U. S. S. 12; Lieut. Lewis Hancock, Jr., U. S. S. 13; and Lieut. Everett Cole Capehart, U. S. S. Wyoming, brother of the bridegroom. Miss Scudder is a student at Bryn Mawr College, and was to have been introduced to society this coming fall. Lieutenant Capehart is attached to the United States Naval Aviation Corps, and is stationed at Pensacola, Fla. He graduated from the United States Naval Academy in the class of 1910.

Miss Bertha Mae Embrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Embrey and A. Turner Cox, son of Mrs. T. A. Hill, were married in the Maryland Avenue Baptist Church last evening. The ushers who preceded the bridal procession were R. E. Beale, church chorister; T. Carlisle Crump, church organist; J. W. Reynolds, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and J. Frank Kelly.

A music program was rendered by Mrs. R. H. Hall and Russell Burroughs. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry J. Goodwin, pastor. The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse trimmed with rose point lace. The bridesmaids wore gowns of white and navy blue, etc. Lengths up to 5 yards. On sale 8th St. Annex—Dress Goods Dept. Values 25c up to 99c. Choice, yard.
